

The Dimmer View

BY MAX GOODWIN

As a conscientious taxpayer, we can't help but be miffed at Uncle Sam for the treatment he's giving some of the biggest book-makers and hoods.

This feeling is shared by Col. Bob Pulliam who carried a set of Sateveposts over to our office in which a series of articles portrayed the life-of-Reilly existence being enjoyed by Mickey Cohen while the government twiddles its thumbs for the income tax it says Mickey owes.

An AP yarn was released last week revealing that a federal grand jury in Los Angeles is finally attempting to find out where the ex-gambler's income stems from, a matter the Colonel and I asked each other months ago.

Meanwhile, the income tax boys made it one of the most profitable years ever for international bookmaker Frank Erickson. The U.S. returned to him $1,471,000 he had paid as evidence of good faith to keep interest and penalties from multiplying while his income tax case was in court. Then, according to TIME magazine, they chopped $3,225,000 off his $5,550,000 income tax claim, settling with Erickson for $2,225,000. Giving the old boy a net return of 4,696,000.

While it appears to pay dividends to play reluctant with Uncle Sugar, it is not a policy we care to recommend for our readers.

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks started a crusade against narcotics months ago by obtaining signatures on a petition asking the state legislature to make thirty years penitentiary sentence mandatory for all convicted dope peddlers, with no parole possible.

In Gardena, for example, 47,000 persons signed the petition in a 72 hour period.

There are many reasons why

Building Approval Given Court

Approval for the long sought second courtroom in the El Cajon Municipal Court district was given Tuesday by the county board of supervisors.

Supervisors approved $21,000 to build an addition to the existing court in El Cajon to house chambers for newly appointed judge Gilbert Harelson. Judge Harelson is currently holding court in the El Cajon city council chambers. At present he is sharing space in the marshal's office.

Although supervisors approved $21,000 for the new court, approximately $30,000 is expected to be spent for construction. Funds will come from the San Diego county board of retirement, which has a surplus of funds available.

The courtroom, to be built on the east side of the existing court, is expected to be completed and ready for occupancy by August 15. Supervisors will probably call for bids March 3 and open them March 31. The successful contractor will have about two weeks to get his plans organized before starting construction. He will then have four months to complete the courtroom.

Although the new courtroom was approved by the supervisors, they are still interested in negotiating with the city of El Cajon for the purchase of that city's city hall. Supervisors Tuesday approved assigning a county employee to look into the matter further.

The county board also gave ap-

$700 Unclaimed At Drawing Here

Thelma Kuehn of 1397 El Dora street, Lemon Grove, doesn't have $700 in her pocket today because she didn't attend the jackpot drawing at the Lemon Grove plaza Friday night. A ticket with her name on it was drawn first. The ticket was for 50 percent of the total prize, $1,400. Rules of the contest state contestants must be present at the drawings held every Friday a 7 p.m.

Other tickets for money drawn were also unclaimed. They were: Mrs. R. C. Wilson, 7800 Broadway; Mrs. D. R. Smith, 10528 San Carlos drive, Spring Valley; Katherine Hudson, 612 Chester avenue, and Mrs. Don Newcomb, 2233 El Prado street.

Persons who received merchandise prizes were: Dorothy Bollock, H. E. Randall, Mary Stadler and Ronald Lewis.

Tickets for the weekly drawings are distributed free by Lemon Grove merchants.

Father of Mrs. Lee Passes at 78

Funeral services were held December 23 in El Monte for James W. Lenard, 78, father of Mrs. Odell Lee, of 1660 Taft street, Lemon Grove.

Mr. Lenard is survived by his wife, Nettie Lou, a son and three daughters, seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee have been staying in El Monte since Mr. Lenard's condition became worse the week before Christmas.

Many Elections Dominate News Picture In 1958; Funny Stories Prevalent

Elections, of all shapes and sizes, held the interest of Lemon Grove residents in greater number last year than in any 12 months period. There were elections for school trustees, on school taxes, the primaries and the general, and on incorporation, too. It was the incorporation election which brought out a record vote for a community issue, however.

There were many amusing events in the columns of this newspaper like the pretty little beauty contest candidate who raised a row when she lost because she claims she was not notified the contest rules permitted short street dresses. She complained the long, flowing skirt of her formal hid her long, attractive legs.

And there was the drunk who was reported "dead" along the roadside of San Miguel street. He thought he was on the wharf at San Pedro and complained someone had hijacked his dinghy. They towed him to the comparative safety of Port San Diego County Jail.

There were the two young men with a yen for turkey who put the snatch on some birds belonging to a rancher on Campo road. They shoved the birds under their arms tail first instead of head first. The birds let off an awful howl and the cops came.

There was sadness too. Like the death of Miles Nagel who had shown an interest and affection for Lemon Grove. He was councilman and former mayor in the city of La Mesa. And the little 3½-year-old boy in a foster home who fell in an outdoor fish pond and drowned. The 21-month-old youngster who was killed by an auto backing out of a nearby driveway. And the 13-year-old junior high school boy

2 Juveniles Arrested For Store Theft

Two juveniles, one of them from Lemon Grove, were arrested Thursday of last week by sheriff's deputies after they stole 11 guns, about 800 rounds of ammunition and $50 in change Christmas Eve from the Lemon Grove Sporting Goods store, 3331 Imperial avenue.

The youths were arrested near Broadway and Olive street after deputies received a tip about the crime from another youth. The informant told deputies the loot was hidden north of highway 84 freeway near Grove street where deputies recovered it. The youths admitted the crime.

The juveniles were both runaways from home. The Lemon Grove juvenile is 16-years-old and the other is a 15-year-old from Dearborn, Michigan.

3 Local School Districts Owe California $625,900

Schools in the three local school districts owe $625,900.69 to the state of California, records released last week by Robert C. Kirkwood, state controller, show.

The money used for building programs and site acquisitions, was borrowed by the Grossmont Union high school district, Lemon Grove School district and the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district. The funds were obtained under the state school building aid program of 1949 and a 1952 measure which loaned funds to local school districts to buy school sites.

State records show the Grossmont Union High School district owes $346,505.90 borrowed under the 1949 measure. The La Mesa-Spring Valley district, under the same measure, owes $213,119.29 but $81,098.08 has been deferred by the state, leaving $132,021.21 still to be paid by the district. The state allows deferment of payment by the school districts when they can show inability to pay the entire owed sum.

The Lemon Grove district, under the 1949 law, owes $56,824.39 with a deferment of $4,424.59, leaving a total of $52,399.80.

The only local school district which borrowed money under the site purchase apportionment law was the Lemon Grove district which owes $9,451.11.

The debt for all school districts in San Diego county is $1,512,245.08. Statewide the debt is $15,567,655.

Three To Compete For H.I.D. Seat

Lamont O. Brand, 66, a civil service employe for 16 years who retired recently as a North Island machinist, took out nomination papers this week to run for the directorship of the Helix Irrigation district. So did Captain Jesse E. Lee (USN Ret.)

Lee, who has been working for the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce, ran sixth among 26 prospective councilmen in the recent election for Lemon Grove's incorporation.

He is a Master Mason, a member of the Toastmasters, and has served on committees for the Heart Fund, the March of Dimes, Community Chest, Navy Relief and the Red Cross.

They will run against the incumbent, Harry Griffen. Griffen announced his intention to run for reelection earlier this month. Griffen has represented the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley district (division 3 of H.I.D.) since 1951 and is semi-retired, devoting most of his time to water problems.

Griffen also serves as a board member of the County Water Authority.

Brand, who lives at 1565 69th street, is listed as being in the San Diego postal zone. He is actually in Lemon Grove and the water district, he said. The city designation is a matter of post office convenience for deliveries, he said.

Brand said, "I feel that I could be of service to the community. Being retired I could devote more time to the job than a working man."

"I am not adverse to the incumbent. Griffen is a good man for the job and if people want him, I'll abide by their verdict. If they want me they'll vote me in," he said.

Lee, last week was elected president of the Lemon Grove Men's Club.

He said Tuesday that he had been thinking for several weeks of offering his service as a water board member. "Acquaintances I made during the period I represented the chamber of commerce, and during my race for city council, convinced me that I could continue to serve the community best by serving as an irrigation district director."

Deadline for filing for the post was December 30. At press time (2 p.m.) no other candidate had filed in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley district.

The election will be held February 3.

In other parts of the district Nat L. Eggert, incumbent, El Cajon (district 5), has filed for reelection. At press time no one had filed against him.

Newsman To Be Speaker At Men's Club

The Lemon Grove Mens club dark for the holidays, will resume its series of Friday noon meetings January 9.

In the final meeting of the year under the presidency of Bill Parker, the group elected Captain Jesse E. Lee (USN Ret.) its new president for 1959.

The program for the first meeting of the year will be provided by Larry Freeman, manager of the eastern district for the Union-Tribune.

LG Child Health Conferences To Be Changed To Weekly Clinics

The Lemon Grove child health conferences, provided by the San Diego Department of Public Health, will be changed to weekly clinics starting Friday of this week at the Lemon Grove Youth Center, Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, PTA health chairman, has announced.

Medical examinations and health counseling with parents are to be offered on the first and third Mondays of each month from 1 to 3 p.m. Immunizations against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and smallpox will be given on the second and fourth Mondays at the same hours.

Medical examinations by the conference physician are given

Law Pushed For 'Teeth' In Contracts

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — A change in state law to permit the county to assess damages against contractors who fail to fulfill their agreements under 1911 act improvements projects will be pushed in the next session of the state legislature.

Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland last week told the county board of supervisors he would back legislation to bring about the change.

Supervisors' request for putting teeth in 1911 act contracts came about due to the length of time some jobs have taken in Hegland's district. Reference was made to sewer line projects in the San Dieguito and La Mesa-Spring Valley areas.

Jean L. Vincenz, public works director, said the change in law would permit a penalty clause to be written into agreements with contractors, something not now possible.

"In that sewer job for the south La Mesa and Spring Valley area," Vincenz said, "the contract calls for the work to be done in nine months. But as soon as the contract was awarded, the contractor came in and said it would take 19 months. There's nothing we can do about it, the way things are now."

"We've had men turn over a few shovelfull of dirt," said supervisor David Bird, "and then go off on a vacation to Hawaii."

Government Shuts Down Credit Union

A county-wide credit union used by employees of hospitals has been ordered to cease operations by the United States federal government, it was learned last week.

The Cabrillo Hospitals Federal Credit Union, originally set up as the San Diego County Hospital Credit Union, was ordered to suspend operations, it was reported, because the organization was formed only for employees of the San Diego County hospital, but employees of other hospitals in the county were admitted through a misunderstanding of the organization's name. Because the union's original name was confusing to some officials, reports said, employees of other hospitals in the county were also admitted. It was also reported persons who were not employees of hospitals also used the services of the union.

Members of the credit union were allowed to borrow money and invest savings in the organization. No money invested in the union will be lost to investors, a reliable source said.

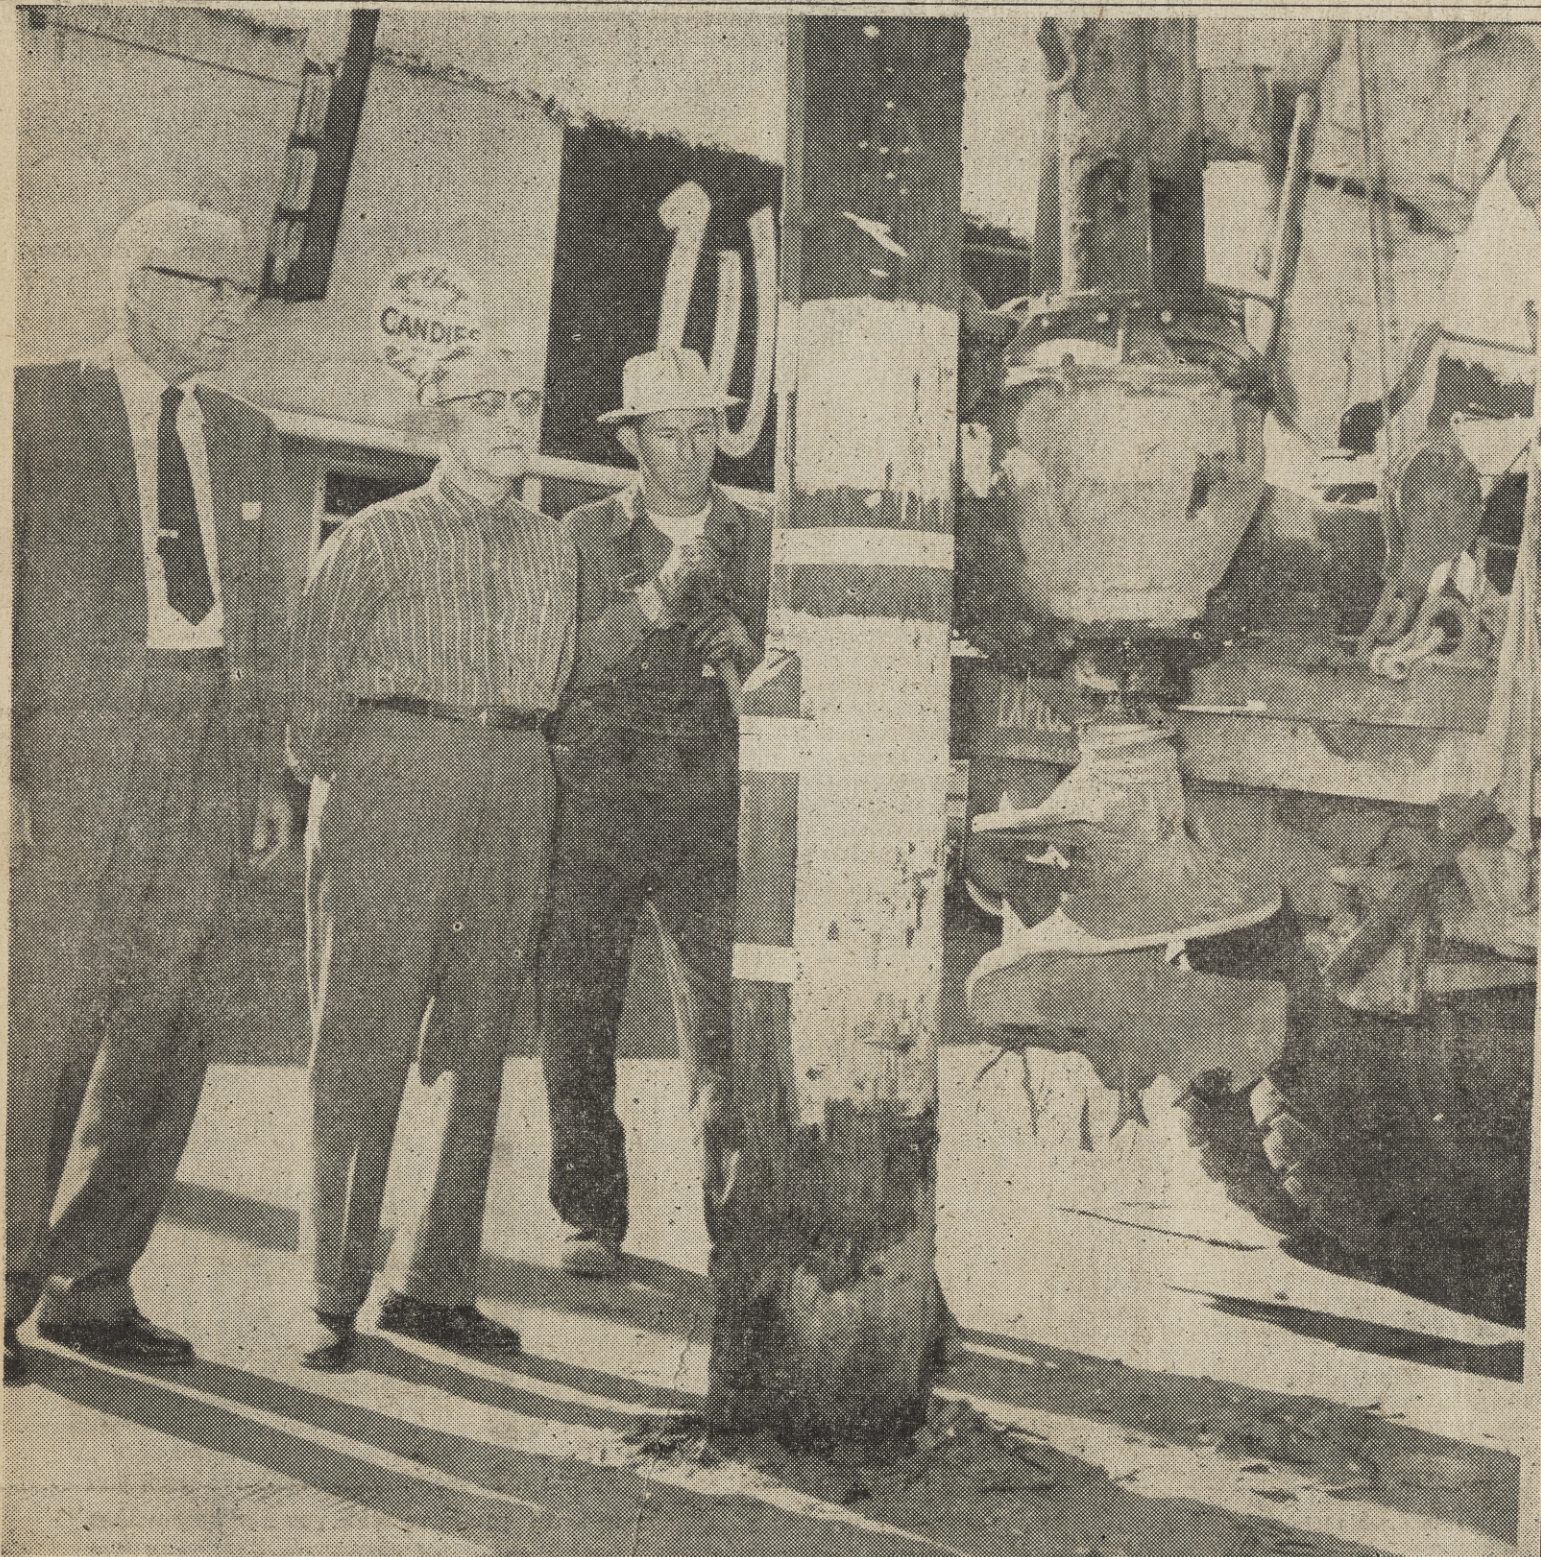

Two hospitals in the Heartland area which belong to the credit union are Grossmont hospital and Paradise Valley hospital in National City.

Hospital employees are expected to form new credit unions at individual hospitals, but another county-wide hospital credit union is not expected to be organized.

Little League Signing Starts

Boys between the ages of eight and twelve interested in joining the Little League may register on Monday evening, 7:30 p.m., at San Miguel elementary school in Monterey Heights. Each boy must be accompanied by a parent and must bring his birth certificate with him.

Carmino Ursillo, league president, has announced the Lemon Grove area has been extended to include boys who reside on the north side of Broadway.

Here is the last known photograph of an old Lemon Grove institution . . . the utility pole in the post office parking area. Its base nearly chipped away by bumpers of postal patrons' autos, it was pulled down Christmas week to end a three year battle which involved this newspaper, the utility firm, the post office department, the state assembly, and the state public utilities commission.

The project ended amid sweetness and light when the utility firm, after months of working on a plan to supply current to those who would be indisposed by the dismantling of the pole, rolled in heavy equipment (shown above) and did the job neatly and completely. Shown above, looking on while the giant corkscrew gets ready to loosen the earth around the pole, left to right are: Lloyd Wall, manager of the eastern division for the San Diego Gas and Electric Company; Irv Marder, one the nearby merchants who had suffered the loss of parking facilities because of the pole in question, and Herman Koos, a machine helper, of El Cajon.

Not present for the photograph is Charles Kerch, manager for Curtis Coleman Associates, the firm which owns several buildings in the immediate vicinity. Kerch paid the cost of tearing the pole down . . . more than $500 was the sum.

State College Lists 217 Course Evening Program

Spring bulletins for San Diego State college's evening program are now available at the college's office of extended services according to Dr. Manfred H. Schrupp, dean of education and extended services.

Evening students may choose from 217 courses in 29 departments, an increase of 42 courses over last spring's offerings.

Schrupp stressed that undergraduates planning to enroll in the campus evening program this spring must apply by January 9 at the office of admissions for admission to the college. Graduate students are urged to apply for the evening program by January 30.

Evening program registration will be held February 7 from 8 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the Aztec gym and the campus laboratory school. Classes will begin February 9.

Schrupp said evening courses may be applied toward a bachelor's degree, toward certificates in industrial management, public administration, and public welfare administration. A certified public accountant's program and chartered life underwriters' program are also offered.

Schrupp said basic required courses in nearly all college departments are being offered in the evening for students working toward the bachelor's degree.

Thirty-two courses in business administration will provide detailed study in the fields of sales, accounting, insurance, finance, management, retailing, real estate, personnel, and other areas.

Teachers may choose from 23 graduate courses for professional improvement.

Advanced courses in the physical and life sciences will be offered for scientists and engineers and other qualified persons.

Students may also enroll in such general interest courses as history of the West, Shakespeare, college chorus, introduction to physical science, and international relations.

Bulletins may be obtained by writing the office of extended services, San Diego State college, San Diego 15.

Master counselor for the ensuing term will be Orville E. Hay Jr., who is secretary-treasurer of the southwest league association, Order of DeMolay. The senior counselor will be William Stevens, Russell Vuich will be junior counselor and Ronald Graves will be treasurer.

Appointed officers are: senior deacon, Lee Wooten; junior deacon, Tom Devin; senior steward, Richard Payne; junior steward, Richard Burns; marshal, Raymond Bieri; chaplain, Allan Lachman; orator, Larry Smith; almoner, Robert Nelson; sentinel, James McDaniel; standard bearer, William Hobbs; scribe, Robert Jensen; proficiency examiner, Curtis Cooper. The preceptors in order are: John J. White, Bruce Morgan, Dallas Widich, Robert Sileneck, Eric Fulton, Fred Brown and Dudley Watson.

A reception and refreshments will follow the installation.

Franklin Barnes Named Manager Of County Fair

Franklin T. Barnes

Franklin L. Barnes, 59, of Julian, a director of the Southern California exposition and county fair at Del Mar, has been appointed to succeed Paul T. Mannen as manager, subject to approval by the Division of Fairs and Expositions and the Department of Finance, State of California.

Barnes' appointment was made during a special meeting held recently to study applications.

Harry Frame, president, said he feels Barnes is highly qualified for the post. He has been a director since 1946; was vice president in 1949-50 and president in 1951-52.

For several years he has been a member of the building and grounds committee which works closely with the Del Mar Turf Club in considering building additions and ground improvements.

Barnes is president of San Diego County Farmers Inc., a member of the San Diego County Farm bureau, the agricultural committee of San Diego chamber of commerce and California Association of Soil Conservation districts; and a director of California Apple Growers association and the California Bartlett Pear advisory board.

Fair Lists Ready At WFA Headquarters

SACRAMENTO (Spcl)—Dates for 111 fairs, expositions, and horse shows in seven western states, Florida, and Canada, have been announced in the 1959 Western Fair association "date list," according to A. A. (Abe) Jensen of Susanville, president.

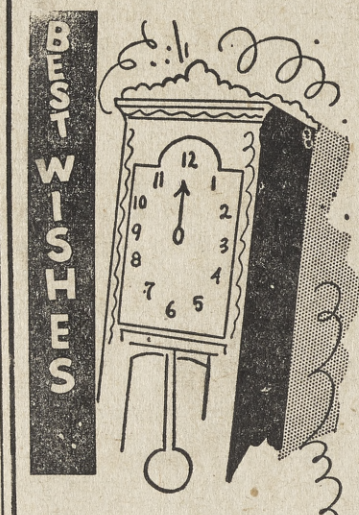

Jensen said the booklets are now being distributed and may be obtained by sending $1 to WFA at P.O. Box 5227, Sacramento 17.

States other than California and Florida reporting fair dates are Oregon, Washington, Arizona, Nevada, Texas, and Utah.

The book also includes an explanation of fair financing in California, which earmarks a four percent levy against money bet at race tracks into the fair and exposition fund.

Dates for 1959 pari mutuel race meets are included, as is general information about each fair, including 1958 attendance, the type of show, names of secretary-managers, etc.

There is a listing of 13 associate members, three sustaining members, and 139 service members, consisting of organizations dealing with the fair industry.

Nonresident Vehicle Registrations Deadline Advanced By State DMV

Nonresidents planning to register their vehicles in California for 1959 were alerted to an advanced deadline today by the Department of Motor Vehicles. January 30, will be the last date for penalty-free application by nonresidents whose home state license plates expire December 31, 1958, and whose vehicles are in California at that time.

California registrar A. J. Veglia said registrations in previous years have been accepted through February 4, the close of the registration renewal period for resident motorists. An attorney general's opinion interpreting the nonresident registration requirements of the vehicle code ruled that the 30 day limit for operation in California after expiration of a nonresident registration applies at all times, including the annual renewal period.

"This ruling will affect a large number of persons who have become new residents in California by virtue of accepting employment here, entering children in school, and other acts signifying residence," Veglia said. "Military personnel stationed here who wish to register vehicles formerly registered elsewhere should take special note

Baja California Is Tops For Saturday Eve. Post

Baja California is on its way to becoming prosperous as a resort area, according to the current issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

However, right now there is a serene and sometimes infuriating indifference to prosperity there, Corey Ford and Frank Dufresne report in an article entitled "Mexico's Peninsula Paradise."

They find that Baja, a reputed burial place of pirate treasure, is "a contented siesta land still sleeping in the past."

"Nobody is particularly anxious to get rich," the co-authors relate. "Visitors with cash are not resented, but they are not fawned over either. The natives have not bothered to learn English, and tipping, like begging, is not the custom here."

It is further reported that there are no tourist hot spots, no trinkets for sale and modern accommodations once you leave the coast.

The only roads are said to be cattle trails so that at present the airplane is the transportation. And you can reach La Paz, a charming coastal city with up-to-date hotels, in four air hours from California or Texas.

Whether or not the natives like it, the Post articles says, the tourist boom has started. Word is getting around that the lower California Gulf provides the world's greatest year-round sport fishing and vacationists are pouring down from the United States in ever-increasing numbers.

Meanwhile, the native attitude toward prosperity was summed up by one, who said, "There is nothing money could buy that I do not have now. Americans work to make enough money so they can come down here and lie in the sun. In Baja we can lie in the sun without working."

County Seeking Applications For County Counsel Position

The San Diego county personnel office is receiving inquiries and applications from various parts of the country for the position of county counsel, according to Clayton G. Swanson, county director of personnel. The examination for this position was announced December 12 and applications will be accepted until January 15.

The position of county counsel will be established in January at an annual salary range of $18,660 to $20,580 per year after the state legislature ratifies the charter amendment approved by the voters in the recent election. This amendment separates the offices of district attorney and county counsel. At the present time the district attorney is also the ex-officio county counsel. The rapid population growth of San Diego has made it desirable to relieve the district attorney of his civil law responsibilities.

The county counsel will administer a department which includes approximately eight attorneys and will have responsibility for prosecuting and defending all civil actions to which the county is a party. He also will render legal assistance and advice to the board of supervisors and other county officials.

Applicants for the position must be members of the California law bar with at least five years of responsible corporation law experience, including some municipal law experience. The San Diego county personnel department offices are in room 403, Civic Center, San Diego.

CHRISTMAS REVISITED

Every year about this time Christmas plays a return engagement at our photofinishing counter. People come in to pick up their holiday snapshots and we get to see a whole forest of Christmas trees that were up in living rooms all over town.

Funny thing though. On some pictures there are also snaps of summer picnics and vacations. Now that's what we call a clear case of short changing the family! Never put a camera away—especially with film in it. Keep your camera in sight . . . and loaded. When it's tucked away on some closet shelf, it's a simple case of out of sight, out of mind. And precious chances for memorable snapshots disappear—without a trace.

So why not make up your mind right now to keep a good picture record of all your family highlights throughout 1959. Good way to start is to stock up with film and flashbulbs.

Auto Club Opposes Proposed Tax Increase For California Motorists

Continuation of the current highway user tax rates, scheduled for an automatic reduction January 1, 1960, was urged last week by the Automobile Club of Southern California in anticipation of the legislative session opening January 5.

At the same time, the club announced its opposition to proposals which would increase taxes on California motorists, including requests for more state aid for city streets and county roads.

"The Auto Club supports, in general, the California freeway system as proposed by the California Division of Highways recently," stated J. Allen Davis, general counsel for the organization. "This plan would provide 12,241 miles of freeway serving all major centers of population, important areas of industry and agriculture, natural resources, recreational areas and all county seats."

"Estimated costs of building this system make it appear financially feasible within the framework of present taxes and tax rates," he said. "All funds available to the State Division of Highways during the next 20 years will be needed to construct the freeway system and to meet the needs on other state highways."

"If the automatic cut-back of highway user taxes takes place, several important items would have to be omitted from the freeway construction budget, and make it more difficult for California to match federal aid allocations," Davis pointed out.

The Auto Club opposes the proposal made by the cities that the state levy an additional one cent per gallon gasoline tax and distribute proceeds to cities. It is also against requests from counties for additional state subsidies.

"If such requests were granted, it would jeopardize completion of the freeway system, which should receive top priority for its economic and service value to all citizens, or compel the imposition of additional taxes," said Davis.

As an alternative to increase aid to local jurisdictions, the Auto Club has proposed a legislative interim committee to study the problem and make recommendations.

Home Plan Tips Revealed By SD Expert

"Plan your home for living," says Mrs. Delphine Wilson, home economics director for the San Diego County Agricultural extension service. She says this is a subject in which women are becoming more and more interested.

Mrs. Wilson points out that some of the basic principles of art used in home planning are: a home should be planned for the people who live in it; a home is a background for people; home furnishings should be planned for their use (form follows function); there should be unity or oneness in form; color and texture; and there should be variety in design.

These art principles are true whether one is decorating a cake, planning clothes for a trip or selecting new furniture, Mrs. Wilson said.

To illustrate the basic principle of planning for use, Mrs. Wilson says to consider a home for a family of four young boys. The furniture needs to be sturdy, possibly of rectangular form instead of curved delicate lines. The textures, meaning the upholstery material, draperies and floor covering, should be strong, simple and easy to clean. The colors in tone or monochromatic harmony give a pleasing background for activity.

"Home furnishings, including dishes, ash trays, lamps, chairs and sofas, need to be honest. Honesty in furnishings means that the article is what it is intended to be. A lamp should give light, not to be a dancing girl with her feet in a bed of ivy holding a crinoline parasol shade. A pitcher should pour liquids, not be a container which is hard to hold and easy to spill.

"A chair should fit the contour of the body and be comfortable. An ash tray should hold ashes, burnt matches and a burning cigarette, and should be easy to clean.

"A room planned according to basic art principles is pleasing and unified. There is unity with variety. One should be able to identify the plan on entering a room. Is it planning for a growing, active family? Is it for middle-aged people who lead a restful, relaxed sort of life? Is the home for modern, active young people, or is it planned for luxury of fine expensive living?

"In studying the basic principles of 'Plan your home for living' women learn to identify furniture, woods and fabrics into four categories of living, which are called oneness, twoness, threeness and fourness. Colors and color plans are classified into two key groups. The key group is any color containing blue and the key two group has yellow.

"It takes study and practice to be able to learn basic principles and put these principles to practical use," said Mrs. Wilson.

Biggest Parade Horses Gathering To Appear In Tournament Of Roses

The greatest array of parade horses ever gathered together for one event will appear in Pasadena's 70th annual Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day.

Walter L. Benedict, chairman of the tournament's equestrian committee, said the famed Medinah Black Horse troop from Chicago, which he called "the best of its kind in America," will appear for the first time in Pasadena.

Led by Major G. T. Sunde on his white horse, the 32 black horses comprising the troop will "act as a cordon of honor as it escorts the float ridden by rose queen Pamela Prather and her court of six princesses along the five mile line of march," Benedict stated.

Four other posses will also appear. These include the Long Beach mounted police, who again will lead the rose parade on 32 matched palominos with each rider carrying an American flag. Newly-elected Sheriff Pete Pitchess will lead the Los Angeles county sheriff's posse of 29 horses and riders, while the Aahmes Shrine mounted patrol from Oakland rides 17 matched black and white pintos, and the Shrine mounted patrol of Al Malaikah temple rides 13 matched palominos.

The small fry will get their share of thrills when several television stars ride. Gale Davis, known to millions of her admirers as "Annie Oakley," Rex Allen, video's "Frontier Doctor," and Rory Calhoun, star of "The Texan," make first appearances in the rose parade.

Other western stars include Guy Williams, known as "Zorro," Bill "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd, Leo Carrillo, Sergeant Preston of the Yukon, Richard Boone, star of "Have Gun, Will Travel," Monte Montana, Lucky Carson and George Putnam, local news commentator.

Scout News

A membership drive for Boy Scouts will be held during Scout Week, February 9-13, 1959, it was announced December 18, at a scout round table discussion at the Lemon Avenue school, La Mesa.

In the Grossmont district there are, as of December 15, 2,200 Cub Scouts registered with 1,393 Boy Scouts and 361 explorers. There are 118 units in the Grossmont district, Clarence Boren, district commissioner, announced. He said there are 32 commissioners, 17 trained and 14 untrained.

The 1959 Scout Fair has been set for June 6 in the Aztec Bowl. May 21 will be "rally" day for the distribution of fair tickets. Cost per ticket this year will be 50 cents.

It was voted to have the round table meetings of the Grossmont district on the first Thursday of each month, except the one in January, which will be held on January 8.

BROWNIES

The first Brownie troop to be organized at the new San Altos school is Troop 565, under the leadership of Mrs. A. W. Jackson and Mrs. E. E. Coulman.

Permission was received from Douglas Giles, principal of San Altos, for the new troop to use a room at the school for their meeting place. The troop holds its meetings there every Wednesday at 2 p.m.

Members of the new troop include Sue Ann Wagner, Kathy Kenaga, Sue Ann Coulman, Elizabeth Shelley, Darlene Jackson, Karen Raphael, Jean Barbaras, Candy Estes and Janet Hall.

Violence Plays Large Part in 1958 News In Spring Valley; 3 Murders Committed

The year 1958 is history. As far as Spring Valley is concerned, the year was a pleasant one in some respects and in other ways it was violent, with murders, robberies and heavy rain storms.

School problems predominated during the first part of the year. In January eight new school sites were slated to be acquired by the La Mesa-Spring Valley school district.

The people of the area were told that about March 1 the sewage treatment plant could be opened. About that time J. C. Danner, president of the Spring Valley chamber of commerce, was slated for another term in office. And at the same time the San Diego Gas and Electric Company applied to the Public Utilities commission for rate raises of gas and electricity in the Spring Valley-Lemon Grove areas, but in October utility rates were lowered.

Along about the middle of the month, Fred Hansen, area land developer, indicated he would tap the famous Sweetwater spring and develop a spa there. Then word came that a dog poisoner was on a spree and six dogs were reported killed. Superintendent Lewis Smith of the Grossmont Union High School district said he was going to ask a five cents additional tax levy to finance swimming pools at Helix, El Cajon, Mt. Miguel and Grossmont high schools.

Survey made

Around January 22 water bonds were sold for the La Mesa county water district. Then again came the report that the sewage treatment plant might be open soon. Right on top of that the Spring Valley chamber of commerce installed officers for 1958. They also OK'd funds for a survey of Spring Valley for a possible local form of government, to be made by a State college department. Then two more dogs were reported poisoned.

Toward the latter part of January people were "up in arms" about dog poisonings. . . $470 had been offered for the poisoner. The La Mesa-Spring Valley school district indicated it would build an elementary school south of Mt. Miguel high school. Then the Friends Community church wound up the month by observing its 14th anniversary. . . with Rev. Bronner still its pastor.

Came the month of February and a woman on Bancroft drive murdered her husband as he was sleeping. About the same time, the Casa de Oro civic association elected Mrs. Betty Nelson as their president. Then the dog poisoner reward reached $500. Along came the Mt. Miguel high school drama class announcing it would present its first play, "I Remember Mama."

SEWAGE TESTS

Around Lincoln's birthday seven persons decided to run for Spring Valley fire commissioners. . . five to be elected under a new state ruling. Then the county announced it would run tests on the sewage treatment plant. This was followed by an announcement of ground breaking ceremonies for the La Presa water district.

About the second half of the month the county board of supervisors stated they were not ready to accept the sewage treatment plan. But the finished stage of the Spring Valley chamber of commerce was accepted. The S.V. BULLETIN then announced it was adding the County News Service to its publication. Then, all of a sudden, Spring Valley building spurted.

Toward the latter part of the month the La Presa Water district began its work in earnest. The county board of supervisors slapped a penalty on the treatment plant contractor for tardiness, but the contractor's attorney said the plant had been ready since February 8. Then came the gruesome report that a man had been slain at Lamar street and Sweetwater avenue, and his body found in a roadside ditch. Then five youths were arrested, which deputy sheriffs claimed broke up an area crime wave.

PORTABLES OK'd

Early in March the Spring Valley chamber of commerce had raised enough money for the survey project. . . $1,500. About that time it was announced the Little League would have a sign-up day. The county board of supervisors voted to pay the sewer treatment plant contractor. . . the plant was partially working. Judge Garfield suggested the Homelands justice court be moved to El Cajon. And the state OK'd three portables for LM-SV schools.

About the middle of March the S.V. chamber of commerce was seeking a branch bank for Spring Valley. Casa de Oro formed a new chamber of commerce with Robert "Bo" Justice as its first president. Then two Spring Valley brothers were sentenced as burglars.

As the month neared the end, an architect was hired to draw plans for the new S.V. school. . . The S.V. post office established its first foot route. . . and the S.V. firemen set the date for its annual firemen's ball.

During the first part of April the LM-SV school district studied a site for a La Presa school. It was stormy weather and a home on Campo road was damaged by lightning. A few days later the Economy bus line asked for a fare hike. The slayer of the man at Lamar and Sweetwater claimed insanity. A local contractor was convicted of grand theft. Then two incumbents and three newcomers were elected to the fire commission.

Public schools week programs were set the middle of the month. Following that, a S.V. market was robbed. Then a man in the Homelands area was named to a high civil defense post. The county set a minimum for S.V. house space.

Near the last of the month the Cajon de Oro Little League had opening ceremonies. The Spring Valley woman who murdered her sleeping husband was given life in prison. The La Presa area asked for inclusion in the Spring Valley sanitation district.

On May 7 it was announced Grossmont hospital had a day with "no babies born." Mt. Miguel came along then to win top honors in a band review.

During the middle of the month a Spring Valley man found his sister after 60 years separation. Then the Pony League began its annual activity. Five S.V. girls won top honors at Del Mar for their dress designing.

About the 20th of the month the Pony League started playing ball. The S.V. fire commissioners voted to send the ambulance on all calls. And the commissioners drew up papers to include 500 additional acres south of Mt. Miguel high school in the local fire district.

Toward the last of the month the Casa de Oro chamber of commerce requested the Homelands judicial court be moved to El Cajon, thereby backing Judge Garfield's request. The BULLETIN and REVIEW then won top honors for community service. The incumbents in the race for trustees of the LM-SV school district were retained.

Around the first part of June students of Bancroft school began writing pen pals in Ireland. Another area, about that time, requested annexation to the S.V. sewer district.

RECTOR DIES

Later in the month death took the Santa Sophia Catholic church rector, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard R. Daniels. Later it was announced that gas bills might be lower in the area. Then a Spring Valley woman was charged with grand theft.

As the month rolled on Spring Valley firemen held their annual ball in the chamber of commerce hall. The Spring Valley chamber of commerce then asked the Lemon Grove chamber board to meet jointly in Spring Valley. Judge Garfield was given "thumbs down" by the county board of supervisors on his request for the Homelands justice court in El Cajon.

Around the last of the month summer school started and adult classes were reported to be on the heavy side. Sewer line construction then started to lag and there were many fires reported due to carelessness with matches. The burglar who robbed a market was identified about that time and the La Presa water plant neared completion.

In July the Santa Sophia Catholic church in Casa de Oro had its opening. The old CDO landmark, the pillars, were to be removed in the "march of progress." The Lemon Grove and Spring Valley chambers of commerce directors had their joint meeting and L.G. told of plans for their community. The La Presa airport ground was readied for new homes.

A bit later in the month it was reported Spring Valley population was up to 12,000. Taxes for the Helix Irrigation district and the Grossmont hospital were then cut.

About the middle of the month the fire department answered five calls to the same location. . . La Presa water was turned on. Two persons resigned from the Spring Valley fire commissioners.

TAXES BOOSTED

Later in the month taxes were boosted in the Grossmont high school district. Bus fare hikes for the Economy lines were approved by the commission. An 11-year-old boy, about that time, admitted setting fires in the area.

During the latter part of the month approval was given to move the Homelands justice court to El Cajon. Casa de Oro began having sewer problems and summer school ended.

In the early part of August sewer tax cuts began to appear in Spring Valley. Then the Spring Valley Estates homes got underway in the La Presa area. The Spring Valley fire department got a new ambulance. The ex-fire secretary, Caroline Harris, was appointed as a commissioner. The Casa de Oro chamber of commerce sought sidewalks and drains for that area.

In the middle of the month the CDO chamber requested that Campo road be made a four lane highway. Grossmont hospital received $1,334,502 for additional construction.

Around August 20 the LM-SV schools began preparing for a heavy fall enrollment. Several guns were stolen from a Spring Valley sporting goods store.

Toward the last of the month La Presa zoning was discussed and a contract was let for Casa de Oro school portables.

The first part of September saw residents of Panorama drive, in La Mesa, requesting hookups to Spring Valley sewers. About 600 acres of land were added to the LM-SV school district. Then it was hinted that the SV sewage treatment plant might be abandoned.

Further on in the month the Spring Valley survey predicted 44,000 people in the area by 1970. Then the Spring Valley chamber of commerce protested the right of the County Water Authority to cross the property of the Spring Valley sewage treatment plant. Then 180 acres were added to the La Presa county water district.

SPEEDING PROBLEM

Toward the end of the month people around Mt. Miguel high school were "up in arms" about too much speeding on Sweetwater road.

About October 1 Grossmont school district school administrators were scored for "politicking." Then the Homelands liquor store was robbed. A Spring Valley man was appointed to a high position with the Atomic Energy commission.

Toward October 8 dedication was set for Mt. Miguel high school. An ex-con slew a Spring Valley woman who had befriended him. Trustees of the Grossmont hospital district authorized a 134-bed addition to the hospital.

During the middle of the month the sewer line contractor's request for time extension in one area was frowned on by the county board of supervisors. The BULLETIN editor's son was seriously injured in an auto accident.

On October 22, the Spring Valley chamber of commerce held an unveiling ceremony for its historical site plaque. Mt. Miguel PTA sponsored polio shots at the school. Then the sewer contractor did a "turn about" on late penalties.

In the latter part of the month the area was slated for lower gas and electric rates and the La Presa water district opened bids for more pipelines.

Early in November a school was slated to be built in the Spring Valley Estates area. The Spring Valley chamber of commerce voted to sponsor a children's Christmas party on December 23.

Later on the La Presa contract was let and real estate sales in the Spring Valley and Lemon Grove areas began to rise.

During the latter part of the month a Spring Valley Girl Scout was named "Miss Cookie" for 1959. An apartment zoning request was turned down by the county planning commission. The Cajon de Oro Little League was divided.

STORM HITS

The Spring Valley chamber of commerce named officers for the coming year. The fire department was deluged with storm calls. An all purpose theater for the area was discussed. The spirit of Thanksgiving then pervaded with the junior high school students collecting a truck load of foodstuff.

In December a suspect was jailed after the Jamacha Junction feed store was robbed. The Mt. Miguel Booster club was organized. Later the area felt a heavy earthquake and the fire department rescued a man from a cave-in in the La Presa area.

About the middle of the month an ex-con was captured after a 70 mph chase which ended in a yard on Campo road. The handyman who slew his benefactress admitted the crime.

Later on in the month word was received that there are to be three more high schools in the Grossmont high school district. . . one of them in Spring Valley. The fire season was extended due to extreme dryness. The LM-SV school district received land from the Chula Vista school district. The County Water Authority then backed down on its intention to cross the Spring Valley sewage treatment plant land. A hearing was then set for La Presa zoning. Gen. William Miller was elected president of the Mountain Valley Taxpayers association.

Came the last part of the month and Christmas. . . Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men. . . may it ever be so.

3 To Compete For H.I.D. Seat

The present director, George Fisher will not run for reelection. In his place is James Curto, a real estate broker. Mrs. Mabel Bryan, a Fletcher Hills housewife, took out petition papers. When she returns she will be the first woman to ever have filed for board membership of H.I.D.

Carl Mehl, H.I.D. assessor-collector-treasurer, has also filed for reelection. He has served with the district in various capacities since 1937.

Under current irrigation district law, no election need be held if only one person files for each of the positions open. A case in point where a person other than the incumbent may be appointed is in the Fletcher Hills area.

Directors of the district draw no salary. They are paid $20 for each day they work. The assessor-collector-treasurer draws $450 a month. All terms listed above expire March 3.

Winners Named In Store Contest

Gary Zwernemann, 7987 North avenue, Lemon Grove, won a bicycle, the grand prize in the boys' division of a six week children's contest sponsored by the Lemon Grove Drug store. Gary is the son of Mrs. Florence Zwernemann.

Winners in the contest were determined by votes cast by the public, with each penny spent at the store constituting one vote. Other winners and their prizes were:

Boys' division: Tommy Eaton, electric train; Curtis Bell, chemistry set; Cecil Troxel, camera set; Michael Sykes, bowling and shuffle board set, and Daniel Perkins, baseball glove and baseball.

Many Election Stories Dominate News In 1958; Amusing Stories Prevalent

like the increase in dog license fees which effected youngsters with pets and the mortgage burning ceremony of the Swimming Pool association when an expired insurance policy was substituted for the mortgage and the time an auto came to a halt inside the building at Imperial and Grove street after running a "stop" sign without injury to anyone.

There were hundreds of other stories which portrayed the community as nothing other than news items can. These added to the personality and character of the community. They form a backdrop for a bright, fresh year, about to begin... one with joy and happiness for all, we hope.

In January the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce decided to hire professional aid to bring about an election on incorporation and the price tag was set at approximately $25,000.

The Palm Avenue school on Palm street was opened under the guidance of principal Wiley Cornelius, with a population of 250 pupils. An outcropping of dog poisoning occurred in the Spring Valley area. Doyle Lee, a 17-year-old Florine avenue youth, killed himself on Jamacha road giving a "test run" to an auto he had repaired.

Lemon Grove lost one of its unusual landmarks when the Casey Company, supplier of portable toilets to construction firms and others, moved from its location, the prominent corner at Broadway and New Jersey, taking some 200 Caseys with them. The latter were displayed in varying quantities at the firm's corner on the town's main stem.

The California Democratic Council endorsed Lemon Grove's Bert Betts for the post of state treasurer and Jack Woolsey and James Rotsart, assistant postmaster and superintendent of mails, respectively, were promoted to those jobs at the Lemon Grove postoffice.

DOG FEES RAISED
Miles Nagel, La Mesa councilman who died during the year, was speaker at the Lemon Grove Men's club and work started on the second aqueduct near Escondido. Earl Nelson was named president of the Lemon Grove Boosters club and Ernest M. Newton was installed as president of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce.

In February Fanny B. White, who came to Lemon Grove in 1901, died at Paradise hospital. She had lived for many years at Kempf and Lincoln. Dog license fees were raised to $2. The chamber of commerce started raising funds by selling "stock" in the "future city" of Lemon Grove.

Work started on the La Presa County Irrigation district facilities and Herb Bruggeman sold his interest in Rancho Market Baskets. Sheriff's deputies arrested five youths to break up local crime wave. Wilbur H. Kay of Jamacha road, twirled a revolver teevee-cowboy style and died from a bullet wound in the head.

The Lemon Grove fire department conducted its annual "clean-up, paint-up" campaign aimed at cutting fire and safety hazards.

NEW AILMENTS
Two new ailments were being discussed among Lemon Grove residents. They were "sputneck," a pain in the neck which came from watching for Russia's recently launched satellite, and "teeveeleegs," a condition resulting from sitting too many hours watching "Gunsmoke," etc.

In March the county planning department announced they would rezone the full reaches of Broadway. A group of Monterey Heights residents put up a squawk on the proposed Little League park later built as planned.

Three youths were caught in the turkey pens of D. C. Rexroad with birds tucked neatly but noisily, under their arms. An election for fire commissioners was averted because only incumbents filed for office. This saved the district the cost of the election, a matter of some $500, according to district counsel V. J. Dorman.

A Lemon Grove lady, Mrs. Doris Mae Rundle, was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail for being in the possession of two husbands. Judge Fenton Garfield requested realignment of the El Cajon municipal court district to include Lemon Grove.

More than 1,200 youngsters and 400 pets took part in the annual Lemon Grove pet parade which was co-sponsored by Food Basket Market and Lemon Grove Jaycees. Three-and-a-half-year-old Ricky Smootz drowned in a fish pool on Skyline drive.

GOOD EGG PICKED
Lemon Grove Committee of 1,000 For Incorporation was formed by the chamber of commerce and a Lemon Grove man, Robert Adolph, county farm advisor, was named "Good Egg of the Year."

In April a "twister" hit Lemon Grove, pulling down, scores of television antennas and uprooting trees between Washington and Kempf in the Lincoln, Golden streets area. A driver ran a stop sign at Grove and Imperial and his auto came to a stop inside the building at the corner.

One of this publication's part-time employees, Mrs. Seymour Robinson, fell in an open ditch on Del Rio road and was severely injured. The ditch was part of the Spring Valley sewer district project. Mrs. Helen Netzley was elected 9th district CCPT president.

V. J. Dorman was elected president of the Lemon Grove Lions club and the Lemon Grove Soroptimist club was chartered at Singing Hills. Mrs. Beatrice Garber was named charter president.

Mrs. Mary Reed of Lemon avenue, fell dead in a San Diego bank and work started on the long awaited traffic lights at Broadway and Imperial.

Mrs. Lee Nottingham was elected president of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club Juniors. Another Lemon Grove woman, Mrs. Lauretta Beckett fell dead in a bank. The second one to die in a bank in two weeks.

BUDGET RECORD
Mrs. Lawrence Vlach was re-elected president of the Lemon Grove Woman's club. Grossmont high school district budget topped a record $3½ million. Also representing $3½ million, a 211 unit development, San Altos Terrace, was readied for opening. A lone gunman, wearing a grotesque mask, held up the Lemon Grove's Jack-in-the-Box cafe. Loot $1,446.

In May, the area's newest high school, Mt. Miguel, held an "open house" program and Mrs. Robert Graham was installed as president of the school's PTA. Local leaders appeared before the county supervisors to plead for realignment of the area's court district boundaries. Dr. Robert Swenson was named grand marshal of the Swimming Pool association's Pied Piper parade. Robert Perry of Skyline drive, was bitten by a rattlesnake. One day, for the first time before or after, Grossmont hospital produced no babies for area residents.

Mt. Miguel high school band walked away with top honors at the National City 11th annual Maytime band revue. District teachers reelected Rick Stammerjohn its president. County library tax was increased from 7 cents to 10 cents and plans were announced for a new library in Lemon Grove by the county supervisors. $1,200 was raised for a scholarship fund for a Mt. Miguel youth following an editorial plea by the LEMON GROVE REVIEW.

Bert Cosby was reelected to the Lemon Grove school board and W. B. "Barney" Ambrose was elected for the first time. Robert E. Brown was unseated.

REVIEW WINS AWARD
The LEMON GROVE REVIEW won the county's top editorial award, San Diego County Community Service Award, presented annually by the Union Tribune Publishing Company. A formal protest to the county board of supervisors by Mrs. Leo Casteau regarding the local fly nuisance set the stage for a change in county sanitation laws, a matter still pending. A Lemon Grove beauty, Carol Wilson, charged she was instructed to wear a long dress at the Kiwanis sponsored Fair of the Fair contest locally. She claimed her pedal extremities were hidden from the judges' view while the other candidates cavorted in short dresses. Other hidden assets measured 36-23-36.

In June Fred Ward, local lumberman, well known for his charities, died at home. Joseph Payson was installed as president of the Lemon Grove junior chamber of commerce. Ronald Duncan, 13-year-old son of a Monterey Heights family, was killed when hit by an auto on Imperial avenue.

RECTOR DIES
Regina Stadler, a Mt. Miguel high school graduate, won the Max Goodwin Journalism Scholarship. The Swimming Pool Association held appropriate ceremonies when the group's mortgage was paid off. Lemon Grove firemen got a $20 a month raise in wages. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Richard R. Daniels, rector of the Santa Sophia Roman Catholic church in Casa d' Oro, died.

Mel Grant, principal of Mt. Miguel high school, was installed as president of the Lemon Grove Rotary club. B. C. Hesser of Golden avenue, was named state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. John Morgan of Main street, died in a plane when it crashed in nearby Fletcher Hills. Bus fares to San Diego were authorized by the California Public Utilities Commission and two Lemon Grove women fliers, Isabelle McCrae and Anna May Christensen, made ready their flight bags to take part in the 12th annual Powder Puff Derby.

In July the county board of supervisors, after 10 months of activity on the part of the proponents, voted 3 to 1 to realign the Homeland judicial district and pulled it out of the San Diego municipal court district and merged it with the El Cajon municipal court district, assuring better court services for area residents.

The Grossmont Hospital District tax rate was raised from 5 cents to 16 cents.

Dr. Lloyd Adams of Kempf street received Optimists International Loomis award, a trophy given for outstanding achievement to district governors. Two brothers, seven and nine who live in Monterey Heights, were

ABOUT BORERS

I cannot over-stress the importance of the borer menace to your trees. We used to think of borers only in connection with peach trees but these pests seem to have widened their range of activities to include almost every variety of shade and fruit tree.

A TIME TO KILL

Just as soon as we get a touch of cold weather many borer species will go down into the soil at the base of the tree to "hibernate" for the winter and they will go through their entire life cycle. So this will be the time to use a borer solution... one containing ether in the form of ethylene dichloride... by diluting and pouring it into the soil. Have your tree well watered and then the ether fumes in the borer solution will spread underground, destroying the borers without injury to the tree. Thus you prevent the borer larvae from ascending the galleries and killing your trees next spring.

We don't properly value our trees here in California because we seem to have an abundance of them. But both shade and fruit trees are being menaced more every year by injury from borers. This is a hidden menace... often you don't know a borer is present until you see holes in the bark, or some times roughage, like frass, on the outside of the bark which denotes a borer at work underneath.

In the fall of the year, the majority of borer species go down into the soil around the base of the tree and hibernate until spring. So, an easy, practical way to get rid of them is to use a borer solution which you can pour around the base of the tree to kill them underground.

WATERING HOUSE PLANTS

At this time of year, we especially enjoy our house plants. And exotic plants such as African violets suffer greatly in areas where the water is hard. So... here's a helpful hint: When you defrost your ice box, save the water that drips from the pipes and use it to water your potted house plants. I do not refer to the melted ice cubes. The water

No Christmas Fires Noted

Lemon Grove residents escaped with no fire damage caused by Christmas decorations lighting, the Lemon Grove fire department reported this week. Not a single "run" was made during the holidays by the fire department for this type of emergency.

Fire chief Harold Hensley said he is "extremely happy residents took extra care with Christmas lighting this year and would like to commend residents for their regard for safety."

Fire of other types too were minor in nature recently. The engine of an auto caught fire December 19 on Sweetwater road, near Broadway, causing approximately $80 damage. Burned were the carburetor, water hose and paint. The auto was registered to Robert Woodward.

A trash can fire December 21 at the Leewood Trailer Park, 7150 Broadway, caused about $10 damage to an adjoining building.

A grass fire burned approximately three quarters of an acre in the 1400 block on Woodrow avenue December 23.

that drips from the pipes is purified atmospheric ice and your tender house plants will love it.

KEEPING THEM CLEAN

Most house plants cannot stand spraying with oil or with any of the harsher materials. Try to find a non-oil emulsion containing nicotine and if you need special help with your house plant problems, feel free to write me in care of this newspaper.

KEEPING THEM SHINING

Give an occasional application of a good, safe leaf-shining material that gives lustre to the foliage.

KEEPING THEM HAPPY

Fortify the potting soil occasionally with trace or mineral elements.

'Happy New Year' Is Theme For Church Services

"Happy New Year" will be the Rev. William T. Nichols' sermon topic Sunday for the 9:45 and 11 a.m. worship services in Vista La Mesa Christian church. The junior choir will sing "Forward Through the Ages" at the first service and the sanctuary choir will sing "Show Me My Task" at the second service.

Dr. Royal J. Dye, who helped establish Christian missions in the Belgian Congo, Africa, in 1899, will be the first speaker for the annual World Friendship School on Sunday.

The school will be held 6:30-8:15 p.m. the four Sunday evenings in January, with classes and activities for all age groups. Light refreshments will be served at 6 o'clock in Fellowship hall with singing led by Mrs. Keith Sigars and games led by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis. Classes convene at 6:40 in their own departments. Adults, youth and older children will go to the sanctuary at 7:30 for the worship period and to hear the special speaker, Mrs. Willa E. Smith, director of religious education, will be dean of the school.

Woman's Clubs Slate Joint Meeting Here

The year's activities will be reviewed at the joint annual meeting at 8 p.m. Saturday of this week of the Lemon Grove Junior and senior Woman's clubs. The clubs will meet at the home of Mrs. Raemond Kickbush, 1608 Svea court.

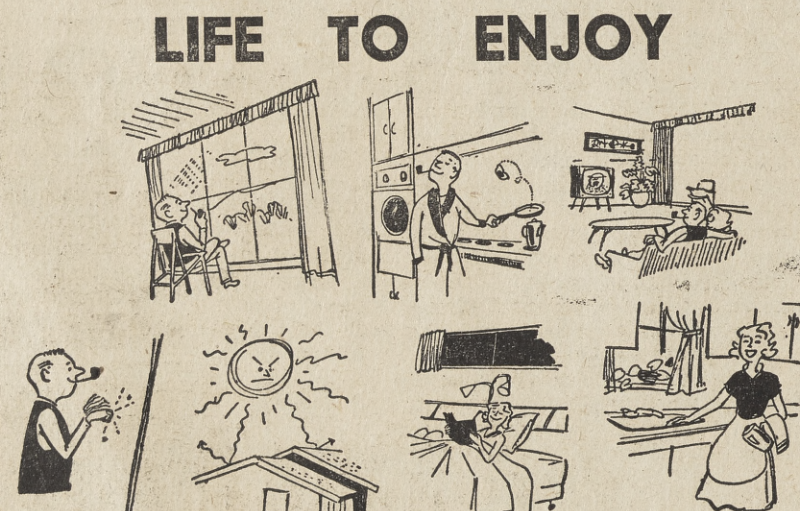

Mrs. Richard Mann and Mrs. Kickbush will be co-hostesses for the affair.

such legislation is desirable and most of the reasons are rooted in heartbreak. Teen-age children appear to be the main target for peddlers. One to three shots of heroin are required to create a confirmed addict. An addict has only two things to look forward to for the remainder of his life—jail or death, for there is no cure for the addict.

Profit is the motivating force in peddling. An ounce of refined heroin sells for $30 outside the borders of the U. S. When smuggled in and cut with milk sugar the same ounce will bring $3,000 to $5,000.

The Elks program is certainly not a cure-all for the problem of drug addiction, but it is a big, first step. It raises the rent for dope peddling so high they will seek a more favorable climate.

Goal of the current drive is two million signatures. These will be presented at the state legislature in February by the State Elks Narcotic committee.

You may take part in bringing about legislation making the laws more stringent by signing the attached individual petition. You may send it to this newspaper or to the Elks Narcotic Office, 1735 Market street, Gardena, California.

PETITION
Governor and California Legislature
State of California

I, the undersigned, citizen of the State of California, being fully aware of the destructive effects of narcotics on our citizens, the rapid rate of increase in narcotic addiction among teen-age children, and being determined to stop this menace to our families and future citizens, hereby demand, that during the coming session of the California Legislature, the State Assembly and the State Senate respectively, enact legislation to make mandatory a 30 year minimum sentence, without parole, for any person convicted of selling heroin or other addictive drugs in a manner not permitted by law.

NEW OFFICERS—Newly elected officers for the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce huddle to go over plans for their terms. Bill Parker, seated, is the chamber's new president, and Jim Spears, standing, is the group's new vice president. They will be installed at the chamber's annual dinner meeting January 12 at Michael's restaurant. Hollywood personalities and a speaker will provide entertainment at the meeting.

Lt. William W. Conlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Conlee, 2309 69th street, Lemon Grove, recently graduated from navigator training at Harlingen AFB, Texas, and received his Air Force silver wings.

Lieutenant Conlee attended San Diego State college where he received his bachelor of arts degree.
The 30-week course trained him for a place in today's all-jet combat force of the United States Air Force. His mastering of the techniques of electronics and navigation qualifies him for an assignment as a navigator in the operational aircraft of the USAF.
He has been assigned to Keesler AFB, Mississippi, where he will receive advanced specialty training in radar bombardment and electronics.

Purtees To Open New Shoe Store

Ray and Bea Purtee, Lemon Grove residents who have operated several shoe stores, will open a new store at 7741 Pacific early in January with the tentative date set for Saturday of this week. The new building, now completed, is located next to the new library, recently opened.

The Purtees, who have over 40 years of experience between them, have twice "outgrown" small buildings. According to Ray, this is to be the last move. Besides being several times larger, the new store will have many features not found in the average shoe store. A patio theme is carried out throughout the store, with hidden shelving covered with bamboo reed. Woven matting will replace rugs and there will be plenty of exotic plants and mirrors to add to the "new look."

A play area is provided for the little tots while awaiting their turn to be waited on.

As always, the 13th pair of shoes sold to a family will be free on the family shoe club plan inaugurated last May in Purtee's store.

Tryouts For New Basketball League Held At Grossmont High School

Nearly 100 boys greeted athletic director Jack Garner December 20 at Grossmont high school for the first tryouts and registration of the La Mesa Youth basketball league.

Registration and tryouts will continue for the next two Saturdays at 9 a.m. at Grossmont gymnasium. Boys will be chosen on teams that will begin play January 17 at the gym.

The league will be divided into two sections. The blue league, composed of six teams of 13 and 14-year-olds, and the red league, composed of four teams of 11 and 12-year-olds. Any boy, between the ages of 11 and 14, who wants to play basketball is invited to register.

Seven men: William Turpie, James Coulsly, Dick Donscheski, Richard Perkins, Martin Van Dyke, Ed Spooner and Ben Alared have volunteered to coach in the league. At least three more coaches are needed. Anyone wishing to coach or help in any way should contact Jack Garner at HO 9-4128 or JU 2-4719.

Other volunteers who helped with the try-outs Saturday were: Mrs. Ben Alared, Mrs. Norman Gowris, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davies, Wayne Kuhlken, George Stockdale and Lt. Comdr. George Wilcox.

Art Show Planned For Area Sunday

The January exhibits of the Foothills Art association will be open to the public on Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center, 8055 University avenue, La Mesa. In addition to the regular membership show, there will be two one-man shows.

Roland McNary, well-known artist and instructor in the San Diego area, will have a varied exhibit consisting of oil landscapes of local desert and back-country scenes, Canadian landscapes, and still life. McNary is president of the La Mesa association.

Mrs. Leland (Bab) Hemming will show mostly oils—landscapes and character studies, with a few pen drawings.

La Mesa Foothills art gallery is open 1-5 p.m. each Saturday and Sunday.

Hospital Auxiliary Sets Two Meetings

Two meetings are being announced by Mrs. Von N. Marshall, president, Grossmont hospital women's auxiliary, who will preside at both. The first meeting of the organization's executive board will be held on Friday of this week, 9:30 a.m., in the cafeteria of the hospital.

The second is a general meeting of the auxiliary membership to take place Friday, January 9, 9:30 a.m., in Lawton's restaurant 8090 University avenue, La Mesa.

The executive board will discuss the agenda to be presented at the general meeting. A social session and a talk by Dr. Wayne Funk will follow.

Mrs. Vinard Francisco, hospital chairman, has arranged the general meeting at which members of her committee will assist as co-hostesses.

"Family and lady appeal" boats, with built-in comfort, beauty and reliability, have boomed pleasure boating to astronomical heights in recent years. Hundreds of sleek 1959 models will be displayed January 9-18 at the Southern California Boat Show at Great Western Exhibit Center, Santa Ana freeway at Atlantic boulevard turnoff.

World War I Veterans Slate Meeting In SV

There will be a meeting for World War 1 vets at the Spring Valley chamber of commerce hall Monday of next week at 8 p.m.

Purpose of the meeting will be to form a "Barracks" (lodge) in this area. Ten names are needed to form the unit.

The chamber of commerce is at 9050 Memory lane, Spring Valley. For further information call Bill Doughman, HO 6-2112.

Begonia Growers To Meet In Lemon Grove

San Miguel Begonia society will meet January 7 at 8 p.m. in the Youth Center on School lane, Lemon Grove.

Mrs. J. W. Lowry, president, will conduct the business meeting and Mrs. Ferris Jones, vice president, will present W. J. Grundhut of La Mesa, who will show pictures of Crater lake in color and sound.

Hollywood Highlights

by Bob Turnbull

"Variety" columnist Army Archerd put it so well when he said "the public shouldn't condemn the way Hollywood show biz people conduct their lives following the public's disgusting antics at Ty Power's funeral." ... well stated, Army, well stated ... San Diego's Jo Morrow is being tested at Columbia for the lead feminine role turned down by Kim Novak and Elizabeth Taylor. The pic is "Beach Boys." Yul Brynner is so solidly booked for the next two years in his filming that he'll be out of the U.S.A. for some length of time ... Clef Dwelling Eddie Kafasian, also of "Variety," reports that Debbie Reynolds cut her first musical notes recently for DOT label. ... Had a ball recently assisting "Teen" magazine with its selections and notifications of the 1958 prep High School All-American football team. The only local boy to score was San Diego High's flashy QB Ezell Singleton. "Teen" is edited and published by Chuck Lauffer and the Peterson Publishing Co. in Hollywood. It is definitely one of the better youth mags on the market.

Two young men are on a weather kick. Producer and director Jay Julien and Frank Corasano who teamed up for "A Hatful of Rain" will also work over "A Piece of Blue Sky." ... Lemon Grove's Dennis Hopper starts his fifth year with agent Bob Raison, which is unusual in this agent-hopping town. Bob, now on his own, is one of the better actor representatives in Filmland.

Farm Bureau Seeking 'Miss Slick Chick' For Poultry Raisers

The egg promotion committee of the San Diego County Farm Bureau poultry department will be searching the county for the third annual "Miss Slick Chick" for 1959, according to the "Farm Bureau News."

To find this "chick" the committee is conducting a county-wide contest and the girl who is chosen will be happily rewarded. To be a candidate, girls should be unmarried, between the ages of 16 and 25, and now live or work on or have lived at one time on a poultry ranch or a farm where poultry is raised.

The winner of the contest will receive $50 in cash and a complete outfit of new clothes. Other prizes, to be announced later, will go to the runners-up.

During the year, Miss Slick Chick will act as official hostess at all events pertaining to the poultry industry, including the annual "Good Egg" breakfast in April.

The deadline for filing entries will be February 15. Entry blanks may be obtained from egg processors or the egg promotion committee, c/o San Diego County Farm Bureau, 435 West Broadway, San Diego 1.

Laguna Art Project To Be Held In July

LAGUNA BEACH (Spcl.) John Callan has been appointed by the Board of Directors of the Festival of Arts to produce the 1959 Pageant of the Masters which will run July 18 through August 16, David Young, Chairman of the Board announced today. With the acceptance of his appointment as producer-director, Mr. Callan tendered his resignation from the board of directors, on which he has served the past two years, 1957 as assistant pro-

INCOME TAX FAX

This series, dealing with income tax problems, was compiled by the Society of California Accountants and will appear in this newspaper until April 15, deadline for filing income tax returns. It is presented as a public service to readers by the Society of California Accountants and this newspaper.

Must I file a federal income tax return for 1958? If you are under 65 and had a gross income of $600 or more, or over 65 and had a gross income of $1,200 or more, you must file a federal income tax return whether you owe tax or not, and it does not matter whether you are a man, woman or child; you are required to file a return by April 15, 1959.

It may be that you had income of less than $600 (or $1,200) and income tax was withheld from your paychecks. In this case, you should file a tax return. It will show that you owe no tax and will act as a claim for refund of the withheld tax.

It is always a good idea to get these returns in as soon as possible. The sooner you file your return, the sooner you have your refund.

You are not taxed on your gross income, but on your taxable income. Taxable income is money or its equivalent in goods or services.

To arrive at taxable income, gross income is reduced by the cost of what you sold. For instance, if you sold merchandise for $2 that cost you $1, then you have a gross income of $2, but your taxable income would be only $1, what you received for the merchandise, less what it cost you. You would also deduct any expenses you had in connection with the sale.

The same is true of your services. For instance: John Taxpayer is a salesman and has many expenses of selling, traveling, etc. These costs are deducted from income on page one of the tax return and have no bearing on whether or not John uses short form 1040A, computing his tax from the tax table; or takes the standard deduction; or itemizes his deductions.

Joe Taxpayer, John's brother, is an employee. He started work this year. To get the job he paid an employment agency fee, joined his union, paid an initiation fee and monthly dues. Joe had to buy tools and supplies necessary for his job. Joe is required by his employer and the duties of this job to purchase and maintain special uniforms and work clothing not adapted to street wear.

These, and many other costs, Joe takes as deductions on page two of the return. They can be taken only if Joe files long form 1040 and itemizes his deductions. The deductions are lost if Joe files a short form 1040, form 1040A, or takes the standard deduction.

There are many deductions that John Taxpayer, Joe Taxpayer and the merchant can take and some kinds of income are not taxed. That's what these columns are about. Be sure to read every column. If you have a specific problem you should consult your accountant as early as possible.

deduction chairman, 1958, production chairman. Mr. Callan came to Laguna Beach in 1950 and participated in the "living pictures" role in "Sweet Adeline." He and his wife, Emilie, opened Mary's Little Lamb Shop, a women's specialty shop in the heart of downtown Laguna Beach.

Service Group Elects Directors

Footfalls Family Service association directors were elected last week. Officers will be elected in January.

New directors are: Mrs. Robert Vaught and V. J. Dorman of Lemon Grove; Mrs. Jens Hutchens, Mrs. William Hove, Mrs. Hugh Huffman, Judge Fenton Garfield, Judge Gilbert Harelson, Dr. Marjorie McIntosh, Mrs. Alfred E. Paulsen and Mrs. J. Foster Couts of La Mesa; Charles McCormick, Roy Booth, Mrs. Andrew Ballantyne, the Rev. James Bishop and Dr. Wayne Funk of El Cajon; Mitchell Prior, Flying Hills; Mrs. Rorie Shannon, Bostonia; Rev. Curtis Clare, Lake Murray Manor; Mrs. G. L. Frochauer, Lakeside; Mrs. Kingsley Povenmire, La Cresta, and Mrs. Charles Goode, Grossmont.

Mrs. Hutchens was chairman of the nominating committee which submitted the list of directors.

★ The custom of making New Year's resolutions can be traced to a peacock. The colorful bird was a favorite Christmas dish in early England according to research experts with The World Encyclopedia. It was customary for knights to take the "vow of the peacock" by making their pledge for the new year with their right hand on the peacock.

Control Gophers In Avocado Orchards Advises California University Expert

The importance of gopher control in avocado orchards cannot be over-emphasized, according to University of California farm advisor C. D. Gustafson. Gophers attack both young and old trees and constant observation of the orchard for signs of gopher activity is required. Irrigated orchards have good cover crop growth besides the avocado trees which entice the gopher to greener pastures.

Gopher control is important not only from the standpoint of actual damage to the tree, but from the standpoint of irrigation. Runways interfere with proper distribution of water. Cases have been observed where numerous run ways were found centered under one tree. Irrigation water from other sections of the orchard was carried through these tunnels to the tree and, as a consequence, the tree died from too much water.

Gophers will eat the bark from the roots and trunk resulting frequently in a girdling of the tree below the ground level. Gopher activity is usually evident by mounds of soil which they make. Occasionally new tunnels will be dug without mounds being made. This is done by the filling of old runways with dirt from the newly dug tunnels.

Any tree showing sudden wilting, reduced vigor or other signs of distress may have been injured by gophers. Damage is unnoticed until the tree begins to show these symptoms.

Control of gophers may be done by a number of methods: trapping, poisoning and fumigation. The success of any method depends much upon the grower and his persistence in eliminating the pest from the orchard. A recent bulletin on the control of gophers may be obtained at the farm advisor's office, building 1, 4005 Rosecrans street, San Diego 10, California, CY 4-8181, extension 271.

held by juvenile authorities on an arson charge.

Grossmont high school district tax rate was increased nine cents for each $100 of property assessed valuation. Frank E. O'Connor of Mt. Vernon street, was appointed district deputy of the Knights of Columbus for district 51. A family on Daytona street attracted attention of their neighbors by displaying a large sign on their house, "For Sale. Colored only."

Jaycees demolished an old barn at the corner of Washington and Adams streets after getting permission from owner Andrew Jensen. Barn had been a traffic hazard for years, JCs said.

A Lemon Grove woman, Mrs. Ruth Nellsen, sued Helix Irrigation district for $13,000 claiming dust from sandblasting operations adjacent her home ruined her singing voice. Paul Louer, a civic figure who lived on Madison street, took his life near Escondido. Lemon Grove chapter Order of DeMolay was instituted with Fred Lipscomb as master counselor.

In August Sanitation district tax was cut from 23 cents to 13 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation. Announcement was made of plans for a 40 lane bowling alley to be ready by July, 1959, by owners of the Bowlero. Two boys, aged 10 and 12, broke 147 windows in homes nearing completion in San Altos Terrace. It was noted in August that I. H. Cass of Adams avenue, had spent 52 years driving autos without an accident. The Baptist church announced plans for an additional building at Main and Burnell streets, 3,000 square feet of floor space is to be added.

THEATER SOLD

The LEMON GROVE REVIEW marked its tenth birthday. The town's only theater building was purchased by David Millsberg who lives on Mt. Helix. Dr. Charles Good, a 50 year resident of Lemon Grove, died two years after being hurt in an auto accident. He was 87. The board of supervisors approved boundaries proposed for the city of Lemon Grove and set population officially at 17,900 persons. School population for the coming year was set at 3,650 for Lemon Grove, and 8,200 for the district's high schools. Fifty-three Lemon Grove students registered at state college.

In September the county dropped its tax rate one cent to $1.87 of each $100 assessed valuation. The elementary school district scheduled an "over-ride" school tax increase of 25 cents for each $100 assessed valuation. November 25 was set for the election on incorporation. The Boosters club set plans for petitioning the widening of Broadway by property owners through an Improvement District Act to avert center island scheduled by county road department.

Two major real estate sales on Lemon Grove's main street were revealed. The first was the northwest corner at Broadway and Main, purchased by Southland Savings and Loan Association. A new bank facility is to be built there. The second was the purchase by Dan Thren of 150 feet on the north side of Broadway, between Buena Vista and New Jersey streets. Mt. Miguel high school offered a course in Russian. Gordon McCorquodale bought the Lemon Grove Rancho Market Basket and renamed it Gordon's. Patty Corie, who lives on Barton drive, won the all-county baton twirling sweepstakes in San Diego. 21-month-old Trisha Thies of McArthur drive, was run over and killed in a driveway.

EDUCATORS SCORED

In October a drunk was picked up on San Miguel street by sheriff's deputy Johnson. Drunk complained someone had stolen his dinghy. Governor and Mrs. Knight were guests of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce. High school administrators were scored for "politicking" by a group of La Mesa and El Cajon residents.

Financing was completed on the College Grove shopping center between Michael Birkkrant and the Equitable Life Assurance Society, it was revealed by George Scott, originator of the project. San Altos school opened with a population of 350 pupils and the elementary school district "over-ride" tax issue passed 1,644-632. Twenty-six persons filed for the first council of the city of Lemon Grove. A workman demolishing a building at Imperial and Central fell dead at work. A skeleton found beneath a house being demolished at Kempf and Lincoln turned out to be the bones of a doctor's medical skeleton. Frank Doolin was named head of the Swimming Pool Association for the coming year. School administrators agreed to surface and sod the Mt. Miguel football field after a year of unprecedented accidents to high school players. The unworked field was rock-hard, disidents claimed.

Gilbert Harelson was named municipal court judge in the realigned Homeland judicial court district. Official dedication ceremonies were held at Mt. Miguel high school. Gas and electric rates were lowered in Lemon Grove, upped in other communities. Dena Anderson and Patti Corle took top honors in a San Diego baton twirling contest. More than $1,000 was earned by the Kiwanis club on the club's Apple Day for youth activities.

In November county supervisors approved money for a courtroom which they refused to build for the realigned El Cajon municipal court district. County assessor's men toured Lemon Grove area reassessing values. Best estimates is that assessment will be upped 25 percent. The Mt. Miguel high school Boosters club was formed to raise money for facilities needed at the high school.

INCORPORATION FAILS

By a vote of 2,762 to 2,249, incorporation of Lemon Grove failed. Twenty-five candidates, including a mayor (which would have been attorney V. J. Dorman), were left without a city to govern. Other councilmen would have been Dr. Robert Burns, Harry Griffen, Jim Spears and Robert Vaught. Bert Betts was elected state treasurer.

In December judge Fenton Garfield of the El Cajon municipal court instructed Sheriff Bert Strand to provide suitable court facilities for his court-shy municipal district. Six new members were selected to augment the 12 holdover board directors of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce. State treasurer Betts appointed John Dail his deputy. Ed Schroeder was elected chairman of the recently formed Mt. Miguel Boosters club. William Parker and Jim Spears were elected to serve as president and vice president of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce. Dr. Bernard C. Kirby who lives on Eldora street, was named to a science chairmanship at state college. Mrs. Elizabeth Parson died at 73. Captain Jess E. Lee (USN Ret.) was elected president of the Mens club replacing William Parker.

A group began a study of plans to form a recreation district in Lemon Grove.

Community Chest Gets Record Sum

The San Diego area Community Chest has been allocated a record amount of money by the United Fund of San Diego county, it was announced last week.

The chest of 47 agencies, many with activities in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, will receive at least $1,620,702 during the fiscal year starting November 1, with some possibility of receiving more.

This is 217 percent of the $747,000 raised by the Chest in 1952, the last year it conducted a separate drive.

This amount will be divided into 12 monthly payments, each at least equal to the amount the San Diego area Chest received monthly from the proceeds of the first United Fund drive last year.

Club Members Visit

Mrs. M. S. Lachman, Mrs. William C. Hubbard and Mrs. John Gregory motored to Rancho Santa Fe Saturday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Hopkins, former board member of the vogue section of the Lemon Grove Woman's club.
